City info

Jilin city is the second-largest city and former capital of Jilin province in Northeast China. As of the 2010 census, 2 million people resided in its metro area consisting of four urban districts.

Jilin City is also known as the River City because of the Songhua River surrounding much of the city. In 2007, it co-hosted the Asian Winter Games. Jilin City is a popular destination for tourists to come each winter to view the magnificent rime ice (雾凇/雾凇) on trees along the banks of the Songhua River, (the river is the only river in the region that does not freeze in winter).
